ABOUT BALLET MIDWEST

My First Ballet 2018: A Prince & Princess Party at Juliet's Castle

Nutcracker performance for area fourth-graders and other area organizations, school tours, performances for businesses and community events, hosting master classes for students from any area studio, and more.

For over forty years, Ballet Midwest has provided first-class performance opportunities for area dancers and advanced training for the serious dance student that are typically not available in similarly sized communities. Ballet Midwest is a 501(c)(3) non-profit incorporation run by a board of directors. We appreciate the amazing support of our community as we partner together to preserve the art of classical and contemporary ballet.

Founded in 1977, Topeka's Ballet Midwest is comprised of 52 company dancers and 38 junior company dancers. The company presents a full-length classical ballet each spring. Over 100 local auxiliary dancers join the company to present a full-length Nutcracker Ballet in December, a holiday tradition for northeast Kansas residents.

Ballet Midwest is committed to preserving the art of ballet, sharing a passion for dance and educating all generations through experiences such as a free full-length
